

Integration of VoIP in our School Network:

This is the NEC Back-up Phone Device (If there is a connection failure to the main phone system this device takes over and allows basic calling via an analog line. It also connects the existing analog phone line for the Fax to the system).

